Doug Jefcoat called the October 12, 2010 CAC meeting to order. Annette Gore called the roll. Asked for approval of minutes from last meeting. John Woodward made a motion to approve the minutes. Jim Pound seconded the motion. Motion carried. All approved. Doug Jefcoat gave Teresa Tomlinson and Jeremy Scott Hobbs excused absence for the October 12, 2010 CAC Meeting.

Rick Jones went over the funding for the Bike Route Signs and stated that he and Patrick McHenry had discussed this and was going to talk about it again and see what they can do on this issue. Several Committee members had questions on the Bike trail and also the lights that were to be put up. Also asked when Phase 3 of the Bike Trail would begin. Rick Jones stated that they were also still looking for someone to run the Rest Stop Building and to maintain the trail.

Tom Queen for GADOT introduced Mr. Adam Smith the Project Manager for the Veterans Parkway Project. The committee had several questions on the project and about the funding for this. Mr. Smith stated that the funding is for the fiscal year 2012 and 2013. Answered all questions pertaining to this project.

Felton Grant went over the Whittlesey Road Project and stated that they were making progress on the properties.

Doug Jefcoat wanted to thank Anne Marie Turner for doing a great job while being Chairperson for the CAC. Told the committee that there would not be no MPO Meetings for November and December due to holidays.

There being no further business, the meeting was adjourned at 2:50 p.m.
