

For your convenience you may make a police report via telephone by calling 911.

Police services that may be handled by telephone include but are not limited to the following:

1. General advice to the public concerning common legal problems and law enforcement procedures.
2. The accepting of minor theft complaints in which there is no crime scene to be investigated.
3. The acceptance of Missing Person or Runaway complaints in which there is no reason to suspect foul play.
4. The handling of non-criminal reports and disputes which do not require direct intervention on the part of a Law Enforcement Officer.
